SYNOPSIS & LIST OF DATES

That the present Writ Petition is being filed by the Petitioners, in public interest, challenging the arbitrary and whimsical allocation of funds by the respondent to the schools it runs and operates. The petitioner, a liberal public policy think tank, is trust registered under the Trusts Act, 1882. The trust is actively involved in enhancing the awareness about the rights of the common man and changes to be brought about in the existing system through the means of the general public's demand for greater efficiency and transparency in the functioning of various government agencies and policies. Through the rights available under the Right to Information Act, 2005 the petitioner was successful in gathering information relating to the allocation of funds (planned as well as non-planned) to approximately 283 schools operated by the respondents, for the financial year 2006-2007 and also the total number of students enrolled in that particular year in an individual school. A statistical analysis of the data so collected and by dividing the total of plan and non plan funds allocated to a particular school by the total number of students enrolled in that school the petitioner obtained the per capita student funding (PCF) (planned and non planned as well as for the two combined) for each school for a particular year. An analysis based on the empirical data so collected, reveals that the respondent's allocation of funds to the schools run by it is without any criterion or basis, is whimsical, capricious, and therefore violative of Art. 14. Analysis of the data gathered by the petitioner shows that the respondent has no policy that defines the allocation of funds to the schools that it runs but appears it is doing so in a manner that is per se discriminatory and in a manner that fails to take into account the special needs of certain classes of students. The analysis of the data shows that the concept of equality and equal protection of laws as guaranteed by A. 14 in its proper spectrum which encompasses social and economic justice in a political democracy is being violated. Equal protection means the right to equal treatment in similar circumstances both in privileges conferred and liabilities imposed and also in matter of granting of privileges and requires affirmative action by the state towards unequals by providing facilities and opportunities. As it is well settled that there should be no discrimination between one person and another if as regards to the subject matter of the legislation or delegated legislation or administrative action, their position is the same and the action must not be arbitrary but must be based on some valid principle which itself must not be irrational or discriminatory.

Article 14 is both negative and positive right, it contemplates reasonableness in the state action, the absence of which would entail the violation of Article 14 of Constitution. Differential treatment does not per se constitute a violation of A. 14, it denies equal protection only when there is no reasonable basis for differentiation, and the permissible classification is intelligible differentia i.e. classification must be founded on some basis and secondly the differential must have a rational relation with the object sought to be achieved by the statute in question. A. 14 enjoins the state to take into account de-facto inequalities that exist in the society and to take affirmative action by way of giving preference to socially and economically disadvantaged persons or inflicting handicaps on those more advantageously placed in order to bring about real equality. Because non-arbitrariness is a necessary concomitant of the rule of law and classification is authorized but it has to be reasonable and those whose acts bear insignia of public element action to public duty or obligation are enjoined in a manner that is fair just and equitable, after taking objectively all the relevant options into consideration and in a manner that is reasonable, relevant and germane to effectuate the purpose for public good and in general public interest and it must not take irrelevant or irrational factors into consideration or appear arbitrary in its decision. The definition of State in A. 12 specifically includes the government and the guarantee of equal protection extends to purely executive or administrative orders unsupported by any statute. The policy of the respondent is arbitrary discriminatory, has no reasonable nexus with the objective sought to be achieved and is clearly mala fide. Further the policy is unspecific unclear and ambiguous and is not transparent just fair and non- arbitrary. The policy is non-transparent and therefore promotes nepotism and arbitrariness. The impugned action of allocation of funds is opposed to public policy and public interest and the doctrine of public trust and results in classification that in turn results in pronounced inequality and the classification is palpably arbitrary.

- September 2007 The petitioner files applications under the RTI Act, 2005, to gather the information relating to allocation of funds by the respondent to its schools.
- October-Nov 2007 The respondent furnishes information to the applications filed by the petitioner under the RTI Act, 2005.
- Dec 07- Jan 08 The data supplied by the respondent is gathered and statistically analyzed.
- Jan- Feb 2008 The data gathered is deliberated upon by the petitioner and reasons for the variance sought to be analyzed and sought to be reconciled.
- February 2008 The data shows that the allocations of funds is per se discriminatory and follows no specific policy and is not based on any intelligible differential.
- Hence the present petition.

WRIT PETITION (CIVIL) NO. OF 2008:

VERSUS

GOVT. OF NCT DELHI

.....Respondent

To,

The Hon'ble Chief Justice and Hon'ble Companion Judges

WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 226 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA FOR ISSUANCE OF A WRIT OF MANDAMUS OR ANY OTHER WRIT /ORDER/DIRECTIONS
TO CORRECT THE ARBITRARY ALLOCATION OF FUNDS TO GOVERNMENT SCHOOLS.

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:

1. The petitioner, Center for Civil Society, a liberal public policy think tank, is trust registered under the Trusts Act, 1882. The managing trustee of the trust is Shri Parth J. Shah; an economist, some of the other eminent trustees are Shri Swamanithan S. Iyer, Lord Meghnad Desai, Ms. Ishar Ahulawahilia, Shri Gurcharan

Das. The trust is actively involved in enhancing the awareness about the rights of the common man and changes to be brought about in the existing system through the means of the general public's demand for greater efficiency and transparency in the functioning of various government agencies and policies.

2. That the petitioner through the use of the Right to Information Act, 2005 was successful in gathering information relating to the allocation of funds (planned as well as non-planned) to approximately 370 government schools of the respondents, for the financial year 2006-2007 as well as for years 2006-2005, 2005-2004 and 2004-2003 and also the total number of students enrolled in that particular year in an individual school. A copy of which in a tabular form is enclosed here with and marked as

3. That on a statistical analysis of the data so collected by the petitioner by dividing the total amount of plan and non plan funds allocated to a particular school by the total number of students enrolled in that school; the petitioner obtained the per capita student funding (PCF) for each school; for a particular year.

Per Capita Funding= Total Funds (Plan + Non-Plan Funds)
(PCF)

Total Number of Students

(3)

The data shows that the PCF for the year 2006-2007 for schools varies from a mere Rs. 830 to a massive Rs. 86,647.

4. That on subsequent compilation, analysis, consultations and deliberations based on the empirical data so collected, it is noted that the respondent's allocation of funds to the schools run by it is without any criterion or basis, is whimsical, capricious, and therefore violative of Art. 14.
5. That the data so collected and analyzed shows that even if the funds allocated to schools are segregated on the basis plan expenditure; the broad sub-heads of which includes book bank, school library, uniform for students of school, welfare of educationally backward minorities students, official expenses, school extension program (Science Teaching, SUPW, Population, Education, EVGS) and coaching facilities to students and non-plan expenditure; the sub-heads of which includes salaries of staff, expenditure for electricity, water, telephone, conveyance affiliation, office miscellaneous expenses, liveries, purchase and repair of furniture, audio visual aids, medical treatment, even then there is no correlation between the funds allocated to a particular school and the general and special needs of students or of a certain class of students or schools. The petitioner has during the course of studies conducted by it gathered that the government funds teachers salaries to schools at 1.5 teachers per section (i.e. 45 students), and until 45 students are added or drop out of a particular school no change in funding occurs of a particular school.

6. That analysis of the data gathered by the petitioner shows that the respondent has no policy that defines the allocation of funds to the schools that it operates or if at all it has a policy it has no rational correlation with the object sought to be achieved but it appears it is doing so in a manner that is per se discriminatory and in a manner that fails to take into account the needs of students. The respondent merely awards scholarships and stipends to girl students and SC/ ST students, in order to circumvent the problem that it is the students who should be center-piece of the school education system.
7. That it has been held that right to education upto the age of fourteen years to be a fundamental right. It is, therefore, incumbent upon the respondent to provide opportunities, facilities and opportunity as enjoined under Article 39(e) and (f) of the Constitution that are not violative of A.14.
8. That right to life and personal liberty includes the right to education. It is incumbent upon the respondent to prevent exploitation of the students in its schools due to indigence and vagary. In particular, the poor and the deprived sections of the society, those that are not fortunate enough to send their children to private schools are entitled to the rights afforded to them by the Constitution and to prevent any action that by its very nature is detrimental and violative of fundamental rights of the citizens of the country.

9. That even in the narrower sense the right to education is a fundamental right, which can be spelt out of the provisions of sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) of Article 19(1) read with Article 21 independently of Article 41.
10. That the state is placed under a duty to provide for free and compulsory education to all children upto the age of fourteen by Article 45. The State has to take special care of the educational interests of the weaker sections of the people under Article 46. This is why the grants-in-aid are universally given to all recognized schools. However these grants in aid cannot be violative of Article 14. This is illuminated from the provisions of Article 30(2) that shows awareness of the policy of the State to made grants-in-aid to all the schools and reinforces the policy by stating that in granting such aid to educational institutions, the State shall not discriminate against any educational institution on the ground that it is under the management of a minority whether based on religion or language.
11. That Article 14 of the Constitution of India guarantees to every citizen of India the right to equality before the law or the equal protection of law. The first expression "equality before the law" which is taken from the English common law, is a declaration of equality of all persons within the territory of India, implying thereby the absence of any special privilege in favour of any individual. It also means that amongst the equals the law should be equal and should be equally administered and that likes should be treated alike. Thus, what is forbidden is discrimination between persons who are substantially in similar circumstances or conditions. It however does not forbid different treatment of unequals. Article 14 of the Constitution of India is both negative and positive right. Negative in the sense that no one can be discriminated against anybody and everyone should be treated as equals. The latter is the core and essence of right to equality and state has obligation to take necessary steps so that every individual is given equal respect and concern which he is entitled to as a human being. Therefore, Art.14 contemplates reasonableness in the state action, the absence of which would entail the violation of Art.14 of the Constitution.

12. That the impugned action of the state would call for interference; because; the said administrative action of the respondent is arbitrary attracting the wrath of Article 14 of Constitution.
13. That the present action of the respondent is being challenged under Article 14 as being discriminatory, because equals are being treated unequally and the level of discrimination is excessive and it has no nexus with the objective intended to be achieved by the respondent.
14. That the allocation of funds by the respondent is unreasonable and manifestly arbitrary, without any reasonable basis or administrative exigency but merely on the caprice and ipsie dixie of the respondents and is not only violative of Article 14 but is per se void.

GROUNDS

- A. Because the concept of equality and equal protection of laws guaranteed by A. 14 in its proper spectrum encompasses social and economic justice in a political democracy.
- B. Because equal protection means the right to equal treatment in similar circumstances both in privileges conferred and liabilities imposed and also in matter of grant of privileges.
- C. Because equal protection requires affirmative action by the state towards unequals by providing facilities and opportunities.
- D. Because there should be no discrimination between one person and another if as regards to the subject matter of the legislation or delegated legislation or administrative action, their position is the same and the action must not be arbitrary but must be based on some valid principle which itself must not be irrational or discriminatory.
- E. Because Article 14 is both negative and positive right and it contemplates reasonableness in state action the absence of which would entail the violation of Article 14 of Constitution.

F. Because differential treatment does not per se constitute a violation of A. 14, it denies equal protection only when there is no reasonable basis for differentiation like in the present case.

G. Because the permissible classification is intelligible differentia i.e. classification must be founded on some basis and secondly the differential must have a rational relation with the object sought to be achieved by the statute in question.

H. Because non-arbitrariness is a necessary concomitant of the rule of law and classification is authorized but it has to be reasonableness and those whose acts that bear the insignia of public element action towards a public duty or obligation are enjoined in a manner that is fair just and equitable, after taking objectively all the relevant options into consideration and in a manner that is reasonable, relevant and germane to effectuate the purpose for public good and in general public interest and it must not take irrelevant or irrational factors into consideration or appear arbitrary in its decision.

I. Because the impugned action of allocation of funds is opposed to public policy and public interest and the doctrine of public trust.

- J. Because the action of the respondent results in classification that in turn results in pronounced inequality and the classification is palpably arbitrary.
- K. Because the definition of State in A. 12 specifically includes the government and the guarantee of equal protection extends to purely executive or administrative orders unsupported by any statute.
- L. Because the policy of the respondent is arbitrary discriminatory, has no reasonable nexus with the objective sought to be achieved and is clearly mala fide.
- M. Because the policy is unspecific unclear and ambiguous and is not transparent, unjust, unfair and arbitrary. The policy is non-transparent and therefore promotes nepotism and arbitrariness.
- N. Because A. 14 enjoins the state to take into account de-facto inequalities that exist in the society and to take affirmative action by way of giving preference to socially and economically disadvantaged persons or inflicting handicaps on those more advantageously placed in order to bring about real equality.
- O. Because a child of today cannot develop to be a responsible and productive member of tomorrow's society unless an environment which is conducive to this social and physical health is assured to him. Every nation, developed or developing, links its future with the status of the child. Childhood holds the potential and also sets the limit to the future development of the society. Children are the greatest gift to the humanity, the parents themselves live for them. They embody the joy of life in them and in the innocence relieving the fatigue and drudgery in their struggle of daily life. Parents regain peace and happiness in the company of the children. The children signify eternal optimism in the human being and always provide the potential for human development. If the children are better equipped with a broader human output, the society will feel happy with them. Neglecting the children means loss to the society as a whole. If children are deprived of their childhood; socially, economically, physically and mentally, the nation gets deprived of the potential human resources for social progress, economic empowerment and peace and order, the social stability and good citizenry.

15. That the petitioner has no other alter or efficacious remedy other than by means of the present petition.
16. That the petitioner has not filed any other or similar petition before this Hon'ble Court or the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

PRAYER:-

1. Direct the respondent to frame/formulate a policy by which the funds that are allocated to its schools is non-discriminatory and not violative of A. 14 of the Constitution..

2. Any other and further orders/directions that this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and appropriate.
